

Dress Guidelines

Date

7/02

Maintaining a positive, favorable image of the University is a responsibility of each employee. Some jobs require working with the public or students; other jobs are less visible. Working attire depends on the job duties and assigned department. Employees are expected to use their own judgment in the selection of dress and personal grooming.

Questions regarding proper attire should be directed to individual supervisors.