

Faculty Enrollment in Courses

Date

9/11

A faculty member must have permission from the provost to enroll in a credit course offered by the University of Southern Indiana.

A faculty member may enroll for no more than six semester hours of work during the regular academic year. Enrollment in college courses should not conflict with assigned duties.