

Outside Employment

Date

8/20

All regular full-time faculty and administrative staff appointments are assumed to entail full-time service to the University. Commercial activities, private employment, or other outside work for reimbursement not related to the University assignment shall not be undertaken without specific authorization by the immediate supervisor.